

Case Study Language

Affiliation

Date

- What is normal speech development for a 2 year old?

A normal child is going to say about 20 words as they get to nine months and will say about 50 words as they get to 2 years.

- Anne asks you, “Are these things related?” How do you respond?

Yes they are.

- What is expressive language?

It is the use of the right word, gestures and writings to put the listener to the main scenario of the message.

- What is Pragmatic language delay?

The delay is often observed when children with the challenge of using a particular language, they are going to use what they learn in an appropriate way that him and his peers or family member communicates.

- What are some red flags that indicate a need for referral?

One of the red flag is due to the fact that the parents are very busy thus their child is allowed to educate his siblings, however since he is also a child the coordination would be difficult and can lead to misrepresentation of that thing.

- What are some online screening tools for assessing language delay?

Some of the most important screening tools include the Believe, strife-Infant-Toddler Social-Emotional Assessment (BITSEA) . also there is the M-CHAT which Is often administered with the help of the language assistant.

Also Read : Nursing Assignment Help

- What should be included in the history?

The makers or the history, activities, current situation and way forward.

- What should the focused physical examination include?

The students must be well equipped to ensure that the rock has been released.

No ref.