Type II Diabetes Paper

Name of Student

Affiliation

Date

Introduction

The section provides an introduction and background of diabetes II. This section will highlight the major developments regarding the diabetes condition, causes and main diabetes II management practices. The following are the topics:

- Background

- Latest statistics on Diabetes II

- Diabetes II in the United States

Evidence-Based Facts about Type II Diabetes

This section investigates evidence based facts regarding the impacts of diabetes II in the world and in particular the United States. The section provides supporting data on the issue of new diagnosis, mortality rates, and the current number of people living with diabetes and the most affected age group. Part of the evidence based facts is the paper will look at the health impacts of diabetes II like strong, cardiovascular problems and amputation. The section utilizes online source for latest evidence based information on diabetes II. The following will be the subtopics

- Latest Evidence Based studies on treatment of diabetes II

- Current situation in the United States

- Factors affecting management of Diabetes II

Pathophysiology

In this section the paper discussed some of the important drugs in the suppression of the impacts of diabetes II. It highlights the major interactions of the body and diabetes drugs and emerging issues, such as resistance to drugs. Also the section looks at four to five different drugs related to treatment of Diabetes II and its impact. The following will be the suggest topics:

- Drug class

- Impact and side effects

- Recommended drugs

- Alternative Medicine

Diabetes self-management

- Diet

- Physical exercises

- Lifestyle options

Conclusion

The section provides a summary of the whole discussion. It will discuss the relevance of diabetes as part of primary care disease.

The proposed topic for the next paper is "Specific Patient Education"

Also Read : Nursing Assignment Help